which assigns a normalised rating out of 100 to reviews from mainstream publications, The Shepherd's Well received an average score of 76, based on 23 reviews. David Jeffries of Allmusic described the album as "beautiful, moody, but do-able." Stephen Thomas Erlewine of AllMusic said it "exhibits a very particular restraint, striking a perfect balance between the artist's lyricism and the album's shadowy atmosphere." Albumsacred.com said the recording "finds depth and beauty in Amos Lee's guitar playing and [vocal] delivery, like a rich and satisfying stew of emotions." Writing for The Wall Street Journal, Mark Deming called it "a moody, intimate meditation on love and loss". In a contemporary review for The Independent, Mike Williams called it "well-crafted pop" with "beautiful" lyrics. Erin McKeown of the same publication said it "sweeps you along its winding course, and you let the music rock you, until you find your sea-crossed soul on the other side." Track listing Personnel Credits adapted from Allmusic. Amos Lee - vocals, guitar, producer, mixing, art direction, design Andy Carthy - mixing Stephanie C.
